hack on the last snow but claimed the mud had more progressive last to it than the snow.

W. H. Minich, a miner in Martin Straitwell's coal bank, while looking at our postmaster's gun, accidentally discharged the weapon, hitting and killing his cat. Every person handling a weapon should be careful as sometimes serious accidents happen by careles-ness.

has been on the sick list the past week,
being from a severe cold.

Bert McAninch started Monday for Davis, West Virginia, where he will be lumber inspector for a firm in Wheeling.

Daniel Mottern and his sister were at Worthville to see their aged father, who is reported quite ill, cause being old age.

S. F. Stormer, practical surveyor and engineer, has been kept quite busy the last few weeks. This shows that the times are alright. Some have money to buy while others buy to make money.

The well that has been drilled on the Levi Schugars' farm is not deep enough.
The company has hired Claude Smith to drill the well five hundred feet deeper to make it positive of a find or not of oil or gas.

The people of West Emerickville imagined that a menagerie was coming to town and taking possession of Deemer's field last Saturday evening, but upon investigation found it to be only a few boys that had been in town all day and were rejoicing over their return home.

Our merchants are laying in their Christmas supplies.

Rumor reports the marriage of Glenn Schugars and Miss Ada Mowry. If so, we join with friends in extending our congratulations and best wishes to the happy couple.

Fletcher Haines is real busy remodeling his new home.

Our local "school dads" are seen wagging their heads and discussing plans for institute.

We are in need of a first-class blacksmith in our busy little center.

Main street reminds us of mud!

Eli Haines, a pioneer resident of Emerickville, has been confined to his home with cancer of the stomach.

The fur hunters of our vicinity are taking advantage of the snow to hunt foxes and that other strange animal familarly known as the "skunk."

M. M. Smith and Emanuel Schuckers are law students under the instructions of W. W. Fales.

Chester Swarts took dinner with his sister, Mrs. Arthur O'Donnell at Camp Run on Sunday last.

We understand there was some one in the lodge room of the P. O. S. of A. last Thursday night, but apparently no harm done.

Mrs. Robert B. Smith went on a four weeks' visit to her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Burket, at Coolspring

Horntown.

Felix Smith was in DuBois Saturday.

Aul Moore and Lan Moore were in DuBois Saturday.

W. H. Schugars was in Kane Monday and Tuesday.

A lively serenade was held at Schugars' Monday evening for Mr. and Mrs.
H. F. Schugars. The young couple at first refused to get up, but they could no longer stand the music and finally got up.

M. L. Hetrick is building a new chicken coop.

Peter Snyder, Joe Snyder, K. B.
Deemer and J. B. Deemer were in Horntown Friday.

O. G. Schugars, our Horntown jockey, was in Beechwoods trading horses Friday.
